CENTRALIA.

Mrs. James Dyke, accompanied by her granddaughter, Maria, are visiting friends in New Jersey.

Misses Leo Lawson and Sadie Hesse, two of Shenandoah's fair belles, returned yesterday after a pleasant visit to town.

Messrs. Charles McBrearty and William Ryan, members of our defeated football team, smiled on the fair ones of Shenandoah yesterday.

Thomas Murphy, of Lost Creek, spent Sunday in town.

The football team had their pictures taken at Miller's studio on Sunday afternoon.

Ball's orchestra went to Midway in a Sunday school entertainment.

Mrs. H. J. Kelly and daughter attended the entertainment at Mid Valley last evening.

Miss Mary Walsh, one of Lost Creek's fair damsels, returned yesterday after a few weeks' visit to her many friends in town.

Miss Kate Troutman is spending a few days among friends in Mahanoy City.

A. E. Fetterman is overjoyed. It is a girl.

If you could see our Charlie's kicking as he would kick such a one as you, you would be the proudest.

Onward Mt. Carmel! a good one for you.

A half back went for Jones' end. Until he met our William, who put him down to stay.

Our High school football team met a Waterloo on Saturday at the hands of a strong team composed of Mt. Carmel and Shamokin players. The game was played at the former place. The score was 6 to 4.

The game was an interesting and hard fought one, but from the start it was evident the Mt. Carmel had the stronger team. The rush line was the weak part of our team and the constant breaks that the Mt. Carmel men made in it were such that those behind the line were unable to make much headway when running with the ball.

Behind the line our team was very strong, as such players as McGraw, Cuff, Rhodes, and B. Fortner would naturally make it. These are the men who are to be thanked for keeping the score as tight as it was, for their brilliant plays and tackles made it so.

McGraw made the first touchdown after a number of hard fighting. Then Centralia got the ball and had but 3 minutes of the first half left to play. It looked as if our boys would not score in this half, but they made a noble effort and, thanks to one of Charlie McGraw's cute tricks, they succeeded in making a touchdown. This is the trick: Centralia made a flying wedge and when Mt. Carmel's line was reached, McGraw ran around their left end with arms folded, as if he had the ball; this drew Mt. Carmel to that end, at which Cuff slipped around their right end and straight down the field, making the first and only touchdown we succeeded in getting. It was certainly a brilliant run and our boys were so overjoyed that they put the little half-back on their shoulders and carried him all around the field. In the second half Mt. Carmel made two on a safety, making the score as before stated.

McGraw's playing was a feature of the game and such kicking as he did was never seen in Mt. Carmel before. His tackling was also splendid. Rhodes could not receive too much praise for his good work. He is certainly a good runner and splendid tackler, as some of the Mt. Carmel men he caught will admit. Cuff is also a good runner and tackler. Jones played right end and no Mt. Carmel man could pass that point without kissing the earth.

The man who tried to referee the game is mistaken if he thinks he knows anything about football. Another claim our boys have is the lack of protection afforded them. Whenever a discussion arose a gang of Mt. Carmel fellows crowded upon the field and interfered. Our team did not undertake to play the whole town, and whenever Mt. Carmel players come here they are treated properly. A returned game is talked of, but if it is played, Shenandoah's Centralia will be the scene of battle. Mt. Carmel will not play here and our team does not care to go there after Saturday's treatment. Our team on Saturday was as follows: McGraw, C. G. Fortner, J. E. Ryan, J. E. Hoffman, E. C. Fortner, J. E. McGraw, J. E. Jones, L. E. Cuff, J. B. Rhodes, L. B. B. Fortner, G. B. McGraw, F. B.

ORDERED AWAY FROM BRAZIL

An Order That Will be Welcomed by United States Sailors.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The American fleet at Rio, the largest assembled in a foreign port since the war, will be a thing of the past in a day or two and the ships will be scattered north and south. The San Francisco has already left for Bluefields with Admiral Benham aboard. She will stop at St. Louis, near Barbados, for coal. Yesterday the Detroit sailed for Hampton Roads. It was the intention of the navy department to keep the remaining vessels at Rio for a week or two longer, until it was certain that no further trouble was to be apprehended. But this program was abandoned upon the receipt of a cablegram from Captain Phillip, of the New York, the commanding officer of the fleet, after Admiral Benham's departure. The telegram read:

"Rio Harbor is clear of foreign men-of-war except the New York and Charleston. The Portuguese vessel was the last to leave. It is reported here that Da Gama was a passenger on her. The fever is increasing in violence, and has reached the epidemic stage, so that the British steamers coming northward will not touch at Rio. It does not appear that there remains any further necessity for keeping an American man-of-war here, as the insurrection has been put down, and a longer stay of the vessels would be injudicious."

Immediately upon the receipt of this dispatch Secretary Herbert sent orders to the West Indies. She will probably touch at St. Nicholas mole or some other cable port and receive further orders. The Charleston was directed to go south to Montevideo, where she will probably get orders to proceed to the Pacific station. The Newark, now at Montevideo, will remain there as the flagship of the station, supported by the Yantic.

SWEPT BY A CYCLONE

A Score of Persons Killed and Much Damage to Property Reported.

LONGVIEW, Tex., March 20.—The cyclone which passed over this section was more disastrous than at first reported. At Lansing, Switch, six miles east, the tornado struck the graveyard, tearing up large forest trees by the roots. It struck the stanch old house of John Cain, occupied by a family of negroes. The house stood in a grove of old oaks, every one of which was uprooted. Persons who knew the house often spoke of the impossibility of wrecking it by storm, but it is now entirely demolished.

Following is a revised list of the dead and injured at Lansing Switch: Dead—Alex Lester, Sarah Lester, Alex Lester, Jr., Robert A. Lester, Sissy Lester, Arthur Lester, Jasper Collins, Dock Collins, Mortally Wounded—Mollie Collins, Frank Collins, Odessa Lester. The Lesters were colored people. Ten or fifteen others, both white and black, are seriously injured.

Emery, Tex., reports eight deaths. In addition to these at least fifty are wounded and some of them will die. Reports from Enfield, L. T., says that the cyclone also struck the Choctaw Nation, destroying life and property. At Spencer four persons are known to be killed.

Killed by Exploding Glycerine.

BUFFALO, March 20.—Olin D. Stevens, contractor of the Sycamore street sewer, was killed by an explosion of glycerine yesterday. Jacob Collins, a blacksmith, was seriously injured by the same accident. Stevens was trying to melt some glycerine over the blacksmith's forge. With one hand he worked the bellows and with the other stirred the paste, while the smith looked on. Stevens was not instantaneously killed. He ran out of the shop blackened with soot, blood pouring from a stub of a wrist and a huge hole in his throat. A piece of the pall had ripped him open from breast to chin, and he fell into the arms of a grocer across the street and expired.

Miners Will Delay a Protest.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 20.—Between 2,000 and 3,000 miners paraded the streets yesterday afternoon with two bands of music. A mass meeting was addressed by District President Bradley and several local leaders. The speeches, save one, were conservative and advised an acceptance of the reduction for the present. The reduction was accepted, but notice was given the operators that the present rate would not be allowed to prevail any length of time without a vigorous protest.

Half a Million Counterfeit Dollars.

OSHAHA, Neb., March 20.—Four special treasury secret service men in addition to the regular force employed at division headquarters and the offices of the United States marshal's office are working in Omaha and vicinity to unearth a private mint, which is alleged to have turned out over half a million standard silver dollars, using the same amount of silver and alloy as the government. The profits of the gang are made from the seigniorage.

Chinamen Boycott a Sunday School.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 20.—Twenty-five Chinamen have declared a boycott against the First M. E. church Sunday school. A week ago their opium dens were raided, sixty-six arrests made and a fan tan paraphernalia confiscated. Mrs. Crocker, wife of Police Sergeant Crocker, is a teacher in the Chinese Sunday school class, and they allege that she gave the police a hint of their gambling.

Fatal Shooting at Birmingham.

MT. HOLLY, N. J., March 20.—Two 17-year-old boys named Richard Marshall and John Altman became involved in a quarrel at Birmingham, near here. Altman drew a revolver and shot Marshall in the thigh. It is feared the wound will prove fatal. The young men were on the most friendly terms, and both assert that the shooting was an accident.

All Vaccinated.

SUNBURY, Pa., March 20.—The Sunbury board of health has ordered all inhabitants of this city, both adults and children, to be vaccinated.

C. A. Ralston, of Halifax, N. S., mistake Officer Martin Gebhart for the vendor of bananas and peanuts at Main and Centre streets last evening and became otherwise gay with the limb of the law, until the officer unbuttoned his coat and displayed his authority. The constable from Halifax was taken before Justice May and required to pay a fine of two dollars and costs for disorderly conduct.

An interesting series of base ball games may soon be arranged between the conductors and motormen on the Traction line. There are a few old time ball tossers among the Traction employes who could probably form a nine strong enough to give some of the state league teams an interesting tussel. All along the valley the boys are talking base ball. Gilberton has some live players and there is said to be enough material in the Rose Company at Mahanoy Plane to form an excellent club. Girardville has not been heard from, but as that town has turned out good clubs in the past no uneasiness need be felt for them, only its time they awake to keep time with the Mahanoy City boys, who have already played a couple of scrub nine games and are talking of putting a uniformed club in field by the first of May.

Five hold young train robbers named Thomas Haigney, John Shelly, George Nos, Walter Jones and Peter Goff, ranging in ages from 13 to 15 years, were arrested by Coal and Iron Police men Smith and Kleindenz and taken before Justice May for holding up a P. & R. railroad freight car near the gas house siding, about a week ago, and removing a fifty-pound box of mixed cakes therefrom. The officers have been on the watch for the lads for some time and lately found their rendezvous on the mountain side near the gas house. There the boys had sunk a barbed wire in the ground and hid their booty, along with a hatchet used in forcing open the car doors. It was while the boys were on an excursion to their hiding place yesterday that the Coal and Iron detectives ambushed them. Justice May placed them under $200 bail each for their appearance at court.

Miss Lydia Harlor, of East Pine street, who recently returned from Butte City, Montana, was last evening the recipient of a "Welcome Party" from her numerous friends. George Halnes favored the company with his original, poetical effusion entitled "Come Yeal." Messrs. Haines and Luke sang variations of "Tara-ra-ra-bom-de-aye," and others of the company entertained by speeches, music and songs. Miss Sarah Hughes rendered several pretty vocal selections, after which the party sat down to luncheon. Among those present were: Messrs. Sarah Hughes, Mattie Clifford, Hattie Crawshaw, Sadie Carrie and Maggie Walters, Maggie Luke, Edna Loeb, Annie Hopkins, Maud Keller, Emma DeFrehn, Messrs. William Palmer, George Haines, Harry Hess, Albert White, John Prosser, George Freckle, Oliver Coyne, Harry Gabert, William Harlor, George and Howell Walters, John Luke and Josiah Blaydon.

Found Guilty of Malpractice.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Pa., March 20.—A jury in the Blair county court convicted Dr. Mary Walker, a prominent female physician of Altoona, of criminal malpractice. The penalty for the crime is $500 fine and seven years' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Domestic Trouble and Suicide.

UNIONSTOWN, Pa., March 20.—John G. Wable, a resident of Jintown, in the northern end of the county, committed suicide by hanging himself with a strap. He was a coke drawer, about 40 years of age. About a month ago he had trouble with his wife, and they parted. She was in love with another man, and made life unpleasant for her husband. He had become demoralized on account of the trouble with his wife.

A DEFIANT PRIEST

He Will Not Acknowledge the Authority of Mgr. Satolli.

ST. LOUIS, March 20.—The seal of condemnation set upon Rev. D. S. Phelan and his paper, The Western Watchman, by Archbishop Kain, threatens to result in a bitter contest before Mgr. Satolli. The situation has been complicated by a claim set up by H. F. Phelan that he owns the paper, and that Father Phelan writes only as an employe. It has been learned that Father Phelan, in anticipation of the archbishop's denunciation, sought last week to obtain from Mgr. Satolli an order in the nature of an injunction to prevent issuance of the public condemnation. This restraining order was not obtained in time to prevent the announcement, and an appeal has been sent to Mgr. Satolli. In addition Mr. H. F. Phelan has threatened the archbishop with civil prosecution.

Father Phelan, in an interview, said that he controlled the columns of The Watchman, and no one else had anything to say about it. When asked if the decree of the third plenary council of Baltimore could be so construed that one archbishop could take action on such a case as his, or would all of them have to act in concert, Father Phelan said: "I don't care whether they act together or singly. They cannot do a thing to me. I don't get my instructions from the Canon law of the church, but from that great instrument, the constitution of the United States, and the laws of this free country. If Archbishop Kain or Satolli tried me to a post and applied the scourge to my back I would repeat the same sentiments, and I would stand by them if the pope applied the scourge."
